To the Reader.

Here hauing
beene much
doubt made (occasioning
much difficultie, delay, and differences in payments of Money)
whether the vn-euen pieces of Gold, viz.

TO THE READER.

XXII. Shillings pieces, &c. were Currant with such Allowances of Graines, as heretofore, before the last Proclamation. To cleere such scruples; and declare the seuerall worths of all vncurrant Coyne exceeding the Remedies.
To the end. All may know, what such light-ned Pieces will truely make : whereby they may bee much eased.

I

TO THE READER.

I haue Calculated the prises of the same, and what it will make at his Maiesties Exchanges; for the ease and direction of All men, that haue occasion to deliuer or receiue the same.

THE ADVICE.

VV HEREAS, By his late Majesties Proclamation made for suppressing of light Gold, amongst other things and reasons therof (therin more largely expressed) it is Contayned in these words, viz.

to the Rates hereafter severall-ly expressed. And with the allowance formerly set down in our former Proclamation.
That is to say :

1. In every Piece Currant for Thirtie-three-shillings , the Remedie shall not exceed,
Foure Graines and a halfe.

2. Twentie-two-shilling Pieces, shall not exceed, Three Graines.

3. Sixteene-shillings Six-pence Pieces, shall not exceed, Two Graines and a halfe.

4. Ele-

But if any such piece of Coyne lacking of his weight aboue the said Remedies, shall from and after Midsummer next comming, bee offered in payment by any person or persons within this our Realme; Our will and pleasure then is, That for so many Graines more or lesse as the Piece shall bee lighter then the Remedies so as aforesaid allowed. Euery person or persons, that so offereth the same in payment, shall also, at the same time pay and allow; after the rate of Two-pence the Graine to him that receiueth it, for the Remedies respectiuely.

(As if the Piece of Twentie and two shillings, shall want more then three Graines about the Remedie allowed, or the piece of Eleuen-shillings, more then two Graines about the Reme-dic. And so of all the rest re-spectiuely.) Then our will and pleasure is, that in all payments betwixt partie and partie, the same shall not onely be refused without all redemption, but that euery person or persons, to whom such tender of payments bee made, shall brand the same, by striking a hole in euery of the said Pieces so offered

An Advice

This last Proclamation, expressly and by plain termes, Extends vnto, and Comprehends only such Pieces, which at the time of the said Proclamation were Currant, for, and at the rates expressed in the same, viz. At XXX. shillings, XX. shillings, XV. shillings, X shillings, V shillings, and II. shillings, vj. pence. And therefore, for as much as all vn-cuen Pieces of Iacobus, halfe Quarters, and Eights, were at the time of the said last Proclamation Currant for other values, viz.

touching light Gold.

viz. For XXXIII. shillings, XXII. shillings. XVI. shillings vj. pence, XI. shillings, V. shillings vj. pence, and II. shillings ix. pence. It is most cleere, That the same Pieces are not at all comprehended, or altered by the said last Proclamation; but doe and are now currant and payable vpon the same allowances and deductions for want of weight, as they were before the publishing of the same. And the rather, For that there were then pieces Currant
